

Nonprofit Day Member Exhibits Guidelines for Participation

Celebrate | Network | Learn

Each year, twelve MANP members exhibit with us in the Hall of Flags to highlight the diversity and richness of Maine’s nonprofit sector. Our goal is to promote the importance of public policy that equally honors the contributions of each sector of our economy and democracy – private enterprise, government, a free press, and the charitable and philanthropic sector.

The member selection process is competitive and complicated. We have almost 600 members and only 12 spaces each year. In the fall of each year, through our MANP Update emails, we ask for volunteers. We typically get many more volunteers than spaces available and choosing a diverse group from those requesting space can be challenging. Often we find that we have gaps in either mission or geographic representation, and when this happens, we search our membership for organizations to fill those gaps.

The criteria for being selected are:

- MANP Member in Good Standing
- Interest in Participating
- Not a prior exhibitor

If your organization fits the above criteria, please help us select next year’s slate.
